Bowling is the game that takes the lead among the athletic young men of West Scranton this winter, and every afternoon and evening some spirited games are played on the Electric City Wheelmen's alleys, on Jackson street.

The league games between the first team and the Backus five last night were the best yet rolled on the alleys, and were witnessed by a large number of club men and their friends.

Captain Welling played a star game last night, having an average for three games of 177. McCracken was a close second with an average of 175.

The Electric City boys are the infants of the league in membership, and have won six of the nine games played against three of the strongest teams in the city.

The second team is also playing a stiff game and developing some excellent players. They have challenged the first team, but the game has not been scheduled as yet.

Several other teams have been organized in the club, notably the Patagonians and Lafayettees, and they will get together Thursday evening.

The new alleys being put in by Becker Bros., in Washington hall, are nearing completion and will soon be ready for play.

OBITUARY. FRED M. JONES died at 10:40 o'clock last Sunday night at his residence in Waymart, after an illness of over two years, with consumption. His condition had been about as usual until Thursday last, when he was taken to his bed, and from that time on until his death passed to rest his sufferings had been intense, but he bore them with a strong Christian fortitude, looking to a glorious resurrection in the last day.

Mr. Jones was born in Hebron, Conn., June 9, 1851, and was the only son of Salmon A. and Sarah Moss Jones. His boyhood was passed in his native place, and on June 19, 1883, he was united in marriage to Miss Gertrude Bonham in Colchester, Conn. They at once began housekeeping in the village of Hebron, and resided there for two years, afterwards removing to Middlebury, Conn. He made this place his home for fifteen years, or until the summer of 1900, when they came to Bethany, Wayne county, for a visit for the benefit of his health.

In August of the same year he removed to Waymart, where he resided until his death. He was a man of great intellectuality. Being fond of literature, he had accumulated a vast store of knowledge gained from books, which, added to that acquired from contact with the world of affairs, made him an entertaining conversationalist, and his companionship was highly valued by all who knew him.

He was a member of the fraternal organization of United Order of Mechanics, of Bethany, Conn. Mr. Jones is survived by a widow and an only daughter, Bessie.

The funeral will be held at his late residence, Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock, service being conducted by the Rev. W. W. Karschner, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church. Interment will be made in the cemetery at Bethany.

MRS. ANNA JONES, wife of T. P. Jones, passed away at her home, on Susquehanna street, Olyphant, at 8 o'clock, after an illness of two weeks, of bronchitis. Mrs. Jones was born in Newbridge, South Wales, and was 64 years of age. She came to America with her husband forty-one years ago. They resided in Scranton about thirty years. Twelve years ago they moved to Olyphant, where Mr. Jones was proprietor of the Luckawanna house for six years, and after living
